

The Books of the Old Testament

Traditional Tune: Did You Ever See a Lassie

Let us sing the books of Mos - es, Of Mos - es, of Mos - es, Let us sing the books of Let us sing the books of his - tory, Of his - tory, of his - tory, Let us sing the books of Let us sing the books of po - etry, Of po - etry, of po - etry, Let us sing the books of
 Let us sing the Ma - jor Pro-phets, Major Pro-phets, Major Pro-phets, Let us sing the Ma - jor
 Let us sing the Mi - nor Pro-phets, Minor Pro-phets, Minor Pro-phets, Let us sing the Mi - nor Mos - es, For he wrote the law. First, Ge - nesis; second, Ex - odus; Third, Levi - ticus; fourth, his - tory, Which tell of the Jews. There's Jo - shua; and Ju - dges; The sto - ry of po - etry, The songs the Jews sang. Job the pa - tient, Psalmsof Da - vid, And the Pro - verbs Pro-phets, There're five of them all. I - sai - ah; Jere - mi - ah, Who wrote La - men - Pro-phets, There're twelve of them all. Ho - sea, Joel, Amos, Oba - diah, Jonah, Mi - cah, Nahum, Num - bers; And the fi - fth is Deu - ter - onomy, The last of them all.

 Ru - th; Th - en First and Se - cond Sam - uel; and First and Second Kings; re - cords; Then there's Ez - ra; Ne - hem - i - ah; and E - sher, the Queen. of a wise one; And then Ec - cle - si - as - tes, And the Song of Solo - mon.
 - ta - tions; Then E - ze - ki - el; and Dan - iel, the last of them all.
 Habak - kuk, Ze - pha - ni - ah, Hag - ga - i, Ze - cha - ri - ah, Mala - chi.

Prepared for the Religious Education Department St. James Presbyterian Church
 Chicago, Illinois, USA